

Polaris UI Policies Page

Following is a summary of the Polaris UI Policies page allows you to create issue and time frequency policies for applications.

Table 1: Policies Page Interface

Policies

Issue Policy

Issue policies create guideline for your organization to follow. Track projects against policies or trigger actions for violations.

+ Add Policy

Search Issue Policy

Policy Name	Projects
Critical, High Severity notify (Default)	4	⋮

PREV

1

NEXT

View

Edit

Duplicate

Set as default

Delete

Test Frequency Policy

Test Frequency policies provide alerts when your projects are not scanning frequently enough, or help enforce repository scanning timelines.

+ Add Policy

Search Test Frequency Policy

Policy Name	Projects
Test Daily (Default)	4	⋮

PREV

1

NEXT

Displaying 1 Policy out of 1

Issue Policy	Create guigelines for your organization to follow and track projects against policies or trigger actions for violations.
Add Policy (I)	Add an Issue policy.
Search	Search Issue Policy.
Table fields	Policy Name: Click policy name to view policy.  Ellipse icon : Allows you to edit, duplicate, set as default (for your org) or delete that policy.
Test Frequency Policy	Provides alerts when your projects are not scanning frequently enough, or help enforce repository scanning timelines. For more detail, see Test Frequency Policies .
Add Policy (TF)	Add a Test Frequency policy.
Search	Search Test Frequency Policy.

Table fields	Policy Name: Click name to view policy. Projects: How many projects use that policy. Ellipse icon : Allows you to edit, duplicate, set as default (for your org) or delete that policy.
--------------	--